Upcoming Events

Monday 3/2 Read Across America

Thursday 3/12 Beppo Uno's

The children have expressed great interest in pizza. We will be kicking off our next lesson with a field trip to the pizza parlor. The children will be learning about parts and wholes. What great fun!

Tuesday 3/17 St. Patrick's Day
Wear your green!

Tuesday 3/24 Library

Working on letters

123

Reminders

Remember to bring hats, coats, and gloves. As soon as the temperature reaches 34 degrees we will be taking a walk around to checkout the leftover snow.

Special Notes

We have been reading some easy reader books similar to the I Can book I sent home a few weeks ago. Some of the children are enjoying the classic Dick and Jane books.

Read with your child every night You will be amazed at how many words and letters the children can recognize.

Writing during play.

During the month of March we will be reading a series of books by Laura Numeroff. We will be reading and re-reading the If You Give ..... book series. Reading these books at home with your child will create a home/school connection and many funny conversations. You can pick up some of the series at the Piqua Public library or once we have read one of the books I would be willing to share if you return the next day. Please let me know if you are interested in any of these books.

What we are Learning

Ohio Early Learning Development Standards

<http://education.ohio.gov/Topics/Early-Learning/Early-Learning-Content-Standards>

We have worked very hard on our letters we have completed A through P. We have also worked to write our first and last names. Some of us have really long names and some are shorter.
