

Thanksgiving Day play

By: Anne Rockwell

Miss Avey – We want to tell you a story of the first Thanksgiving. About the Pilgrims and the Indians and how they thanked God for so many blessings.

Ben-Indian – (bow) I saw the Mayflower sailing in the ocean, coming closer and closer.

Madison-Pilgrim – (boat tossing back and forth) I'm thankful that I carried the Pilgrims safely and didn't sink in the big waves.

ALL PILGRIMS – We are all thankful to have landed safely in this new land.

McKenna-Indian – (gourd) We are happy to share the land with our new friends and thankful that they treated us kindly.

Landon-Pilgrim – (rock) We named our new land Plymouth Rock after our home in England.

Skyler-Pilgrim – (house)Brady -Indian (tree)- We are thankful for the forest with many trees to build our new homes.

Andrew-Pilgrim – (axe) We chopped down the trees and worked together until the job was done.

Grace-Pilgrim - (cranberries) We saw wild cranberries growing and made cranberry sauce for Thanksgiving.

Cohen-Pilgrim – (corn) We are thankful the corn we planted grew tall and green.

Payton -Indian –(small turkey)The Pilgrims had never seen a wild turkey that lives in this new land.

Haven-Pilgrim – (big turkey) We are thankful that the Indians told us wild turkey was good to eat, It's Delicious!

Michael-Indian – (share basket) Chloe-Pilgrim – (share basket)(baby) We are thankful that our land has enough of everything to share.

Austin-Indian – (bow and arrow) We are thankful for our new friends

Renner-Indian Chief – (staff) We want to share our harvest and have a great Thanksgiving feast.

Mrs. Jacomet – And that's our story of the first Thanksgiving. Thank you for sharing with us.
